10 LAST BRAND, INC.,
11 Defendant.

Case No. 23-cv-04850-AMO

PRETRIAL ORDER

12
13 The Court hereby SETS the following trial and pretrial deadlines.

14 I. TRIAL DATE

- 15 A. Jury trial will begin on March 10, 2026, at 8:30 a.m., in Courtroom 10, 19th
16 Floor, U.S. District Court, 450 Golden Gate, San Francisco, California.
17 B. The Court expects the length of the trial to not exceed 4 court days, including jury 18 selection.

19 II. PRETRIAL CONFERENCE

- 20 A. A Final Pretrial Conference shall be held on February 12, 2026, at 11:00 a.m., in 21 Courtroom 10, 19th Floor. Lead trial counsel for each party shall attend.
22 B. By no later than December 18, 2025, the parties shall do the following:
23 1. In lieu of preparing a Joint Pretrial Conference Statement, the parties shall 24 meet and confer by phone or in person, and then prepare and file a jointly signed Proposed Final 25 Pretrial Order¹ that contains: (a) a brief description of the substance of claims and defenses which

26
27 ¹ All briefs, filings, and other submissions to the Court shall comply with the formatting
28 requirements set forth in the Civil Local Rules.

1 remain to be decided; (b) a statement of all relief sought; (c) all stipulated facts; (d) a joint exhibit
2 list in numerical order, including a brief description of the exhibit and Bates numbers, a blank
3 column for when it will be offered into evidence, a blank column for when it may be received into 4 evidence, and a blank column for any limitations on its use; and (e) each party's separate witness
5 list for its case-in-chief witnesses (including those appearing by deposition), including, for all such 6 witnesses (other than party plaintiffs or defendants), a short statement of the substance of his/her
7 testimony and, separately, what, if any, non-cumulative testimony the witness will offer. For each
8 witness, state an hour/minute time estimate for the direct examination (only). Items (d) and (e)
9 should be submitted as appendices to the proposed order. The proposed order should also state
10 which issues, if any, are for the Court to decide, rather than the jury. The objective is to convert
11 the proposed order to a final order with the benefit of any discussion at the Final Pretrial
12 Conference.²

13 2. File a joint set of proposed instructions on substantive issues of law
14 arranged in a logical sequence. If undisputed, an instruction shall be identified as "Stipulated 15 Instruction No. ____ Re _____," with the blanks filled in as appropriate. If disputed, each 16 version of the instruction shall be inserted together, back to back, in their logical place in the 17 overall sequence. Each such disputed instruction shall be identified as, for example, "Disputed 18 Instruction No. ____ Re _____ Offered by _____," with the blanks filled
19 in as appropriate. All disputed versions of the same basic instruction shall bear the same number.
20 Any modifications to a form instruction must be plainly identified. If a party does not have a 21 counter version and simply contends that no such instruction in any version should be given, then 22 that party should so state (and explain why) on a separate page inserted in lieu of an alternate
23 version. With respect to form preliminary instructions, general instructions, or concluding 24 instructions, please simply cite to the numbers of the requested instructions in the current edition

25 _____
26 ² Exhibits and witnesses not included in the proposed Joint Pretrial Order pursuant to Paragraph
27 II.B above may not be used in a party's case-in-chief and may not be used during cross 28 examination of the other side's case-in-chief (other than for impeachment). Defense witnesses are considered case-in-chief witnesses, not "rebuttal" witnesses. Objections to exhibits not raised pursuant to Paragraph II.B are waived.

1 of the Ninth Circuit Model Jury Instructions. Other than citing the numbers, the parties shall not
2 include preliminary, general, or concluding instructions in the packet.

3 3. File a separate memorandum of law in support of each party's disputed
4 instructions, if any, organized by instruction number.

5 4. File a joint set of proposed voir dire questions supplemented as necessary
6 by separate requests. The Court may select questions from this submission to pose to the venire
7 during jury selection. These questions are distinct from those the parties propose be added to the 8 jury questionnaire. See Section VI.

9 5. File trial briefs on any controlling issues of law.

10 6. File proposed verdict forms, joint or separate.

11 7. File and serve any objections to exhibits.

12 8. File a joint simplified Statement of the Case to be read to the jury during 13 voir dire as part of the proposed jury instructions. Unless the case is extremely complex, this 14 statement should not exceed one page.

15 9. File a joint statement listing the people involved in the case. This list will 16 be shown to prospective jurors during jury selection. The list should include counsel, the parties, 17 the potential witnesses, and any other people significantly involved in the case.

18 C. Any motions in limine shall be submitted as follows: by January 5, 2026, the 19 moving party shall serve, but not file, the opening brief. By January 12, 2026, the responding 20 party shall serve the opposition. There will be no reply. When the oppositions are received, the 21 moving party should collate the motion and the opposition together, back-to-back, and then file
22 the paired sets by January 13, 2026. Each motion should be presented in a separate 23 memorandum and properly identified, for example, "Plaintiff's Motion in Limine No. 1 to 24 Exclude . . ." Each side is limited to bringing five motions in limine. Each motion should 25 address a single, separate topic, and contain no more than seven pages of briefing per side.

1 D. Two paper courtesy copies of the above documents shall be delivered by NOON
2 the day after filing. The Joint Proposed Final Pretrial Order, jury instructions, and verdict form
3 shall also be submitted via e-mail as separate attachments to AMOpo@cand.uscourts.gov. The 4 Court requests that all hard-copy submissions be three-hole-punched, double-sided, and in a 5 binder with tabs indicating the name of the document and corresponding docket number.

6 III. DEPOSITION AND DISCOVERY DESIGNATIONS

7 Unless otherwise ordered, by no later than February 17, 2026, the parties shall jointly file
8 all designations of deposition testimony or other discovery it wishes to offer, as well as any 9 counter-designations or objections to the deposition testimony or discovery offered by any other 10 party. There is no need to lodge deposition transcripts before trial. The lawyers should simply be 11 prepared to hand to the Court a copy of a witness's deposition testimony once it is time to cross-12 examine them.

13 IV. PRETRIAL ARRANGEMENTS

14 A. Should a daily transcript and/or real-time reporting be desired, the parties shall 15 make arrangements with Melinda Lock, Supervisor of the Court Reporting Services, at (415) 522-16 2079, at least ten (10) calendar days prior to the trial date.

17 B. During trial, counsel may wish to use overhead projectors, laser-disk/computer
18 graphics, poster blow-ups, models, or specimens of devices. Equipment should be shared by all 19 counsel to the maximum extent possible. The Court provides no equipment other than an easel.
20 The United States Marshal requires a court order to allow equipment into the courthouse. For 21 electronic equipment, parties should be prepared to maintain the equipment or have a technician
22 handy at all times. The parties shall tape extension cords to the carpet for safety. The parties may 23 work with the deputy clerk, Alexis Solorzano Rodriguez, at 415-522-2030, on all courtroom-
24 layout issues, which should be finalized at least ten (10) calendar days prior to the trial date.

25 C. By no later than February 23, 2026, the parties must provide the Court Reporter a 26 jointly-created list of names and places as well as any uncommon terms or acronyms that are 27 likely to come up during the trial.

1 V. SCEDULING

2 Trial will be conducted from 8:30 a.m. to 1:00 p.m., depending on the availability of 3 witnesses and jurors, on Thursday and from 8:30 to 1:15 p.m. on Tuesday, Wednesday, and 4 Friday, with two 10-minute breaks each day. Counsel must arrive by 8:15 a.m., or earlier as 5 needed, for any matters to be heard out of the presence of the jury. The jury will be called at 8:30 6 a.m.

7 VI. THE JURY

8 The Jury Office asks prospective jurors to complete an online jury questionnaire in 9 advance of their summons date. The standard questionnaire is available on the Northern District's 10 website at http://www.cand.uscourts.gov/wp-content/uploads/attorneys/Internet-version_Standard-CAND-Trial_SurveyMonkey_3-2022.pdf. The parties are allowed to propose 10 case specific 11 questions to add to the questionnaire. The parties shall meet and confer, and to the extent 12 possible, file a joint list of proposed questions to add to the questionnaire. To the extent that the 13 parties cannot agree, they may file separate proposed questions from which the Court will choose
14 an appropriate number. The parties' joint or separate submissions should be filed by January 26, 2026, 15 with a Word version of the filed version emailed to AMOpo@cand.uscourts.gov. The 16 parties need not include a question that asks prospective jurors whether they know any of the 17 individuals involved in the case. The prospective jurors will be given an "Involved Individuals"
18 list when they are called in. The Court will provide the parties with the survey responses the 19 Friday before trial.

21 In civil cases, there are no alternate jurors and the jury is selected as follows: Eighteen to 22 twenty jurors are called to fill the jury box and the row in front of the bar, and are given numbers
23 (1 through 20). The remaining potential jurors will be seated in the public benches. Hardship
24 excuses will usually be considered at this point. Counsel may conduct a limited voir dire.
25 Challenges for cause will then be addressed out of the presence of the potential jurors. The Court
26 will consider whether to fill in the seats of the stricken jurors. If so, questions will be asked of the 27 additional jurors and cause motions as to them will be considered. After a short recess, each side 28 may exercise its allotment of peremptory challenges out of the presence of the potential jurors.

1 The eight (or such other size as will constitute the jury) surviving the challenge process with the 2 lowest numbers become the final jury. If more (or fewer) than eight jurors are to be seated, then
3 the starting number will be adjusted. The starting number will also be adjusted if the Court allows 4 more than a total of six peremptories. Once the jury selection is completed, the jurors' names will 5 be read again and they will be seated in the jury box and sworn. The Court may alter this 6 procedure in its discretion and after consultation with the parties.

7 VII. WITNESSES

8 At the close of each trial day, all counsel shall exchange a list of witnesses for the 9 next two full court days and the exhibits that will be used during direct examination (other than for 10 impeachment of an adverse witness). Within 24 hours of such notice, all other counsel shall 11 provide any objections to such exhibits and shall provide a list of all exhibits to be used with the 12 same witness on cross-examination (other than for impeachment). The first notice shall be 13 exchanged prior to the first day of trial. All such notices shall be provided in writing and lodged 14 with the Court.

15 The parties shall have all upcoming witnesses on the same day available in the courthouse
16 and ready to testify. Failure to have the next witness ready or to be prepared to proceed with the 17 evidence will usually be deemed to constitute resting. If counsel plans to read in a transcript of a 18 deposition, counsel must have a deposition prepared and vetted early on to read into the record.

19 The parties are encouraged to stipulate where possible, for example, as to the exclusion of 20 witnesses from the courtroom.

21 VIII. EXHIBITS

22 A. Prior to the Final Pretrial Conference, counsel must meet and confer in person to 23 consider all exhibit numbers and objections and to eliminate duplicate exhibits and confusion
24 over the precise exhibit.

25 B. Use numbers only, not letters, for exhibits, preferably the same numbers as were 26 used in depositions. Blocks of numbers should be assigned to fit the need of the case (e.g., 27 Plaintiff has 1 to 100, Defendant A has 101 to 200, Defendant B has 201 to 300, etc.). A single 28 exhibit should be marked only once. If the plaintiff has marked an exhibit, then the defendant

1 should not re-mark the exact document with another number. Different versions of the same
2 document, e.g., a copy with additional handwriting, must be treated as different exhibits with 3 different numbers. To avoid any party claiming “ownership” of an exhibit, all exhibits shall be
4 marked and referred to as “Trial Exhibit No. _____,” not as “Plaintiff’s Exhibit” or “Defendant’s
5 Exhibit.”

6 C. The exhibit tag shall be in the following form:

7	UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
8	NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA
9	TRIAL EXHIBIT 100
10	Case No. _____
11	Date Entered _____
12	By _____ Deputy Clerk

13 Counsel preferably will make the tag up in a color that will stand out (yet still allow for 14 photocopying), but that is not essential. Place the tag on or near the lower right-hand corner or, if 15 a photograph, on the back. Counsel should fill in the tag but leave the last two spaces blank. The 16 parties must jointly prepare a single set of all trial exhibits that will be the official record set to be 17 used with the witnesses and on appeal. Each exhibit must be tagged, three-hole-punched,
18 separated with a label divider identifying the exhibit number, and placed in 3-ring binders. Spine
19 labels should indicate the numbers of the exhibits that are in the binders. Each set of exhibit
20 binders should be marked as “Original.” Deposit the exhibits with the deputy clerk seven (7) days
21 before the Pretrial Conference. At trial, the parties shall provide individual witness exhibit binders
22 which contain all the exhibits the parties expect to use with the witness. The parties shall provide 23 two copies of each witness binder: one for the witness and one for the Court.

24 D. Counsel must consult with each other and with the deputy clerk at the end of each 25 trial day and compare notes as to which exhibits are in evidence and any limitations thereon. If 26 there are any differences, counsel should bring them promptly to the Court’s attention.

1 E. Before the closing arguments, counsel must confer with the deputy clerk to make 2 sure the exhibits in evidence are in good order.

3 F. Exhibit notebooks for the jury will not be permitted without prior permission from 4 the Court. Publication must be by poster blow-up, overhead projection, or such other method as is 5 allowed in the circumstances. It is permissible to highlight, circle or underscore in the 6 enlargements as long as it is clear that it was not on the original.

7 IX. OBJECTIONS

8 In making objections, counsel should state only the legal grounds for the objection and 9 should withhold all further comment or argument unless elaboration is requested by the Court.

10 X. CHARGING CONFERENCE

11 As the trial progresses and the evidence is heard, the Court will fashion a comprehensive 12 set of jury instructions to cover all issues actually being tried. Prior to the close of the evidence,
13 the Court will provide a draft final charge to the parties. After a reasonable period for review, one 14 or more charging conferences will be held at which each party may object to any passage, ask for 15 modifications, or ask for additions. Any instruction request must be renewed specifically at the 16 conference or it will be deemed waived, whether or not it was requested prior to trial. If, however,
17 a party still wishes to request an omitted instruction after reviewing the Court's draft, then it must 18 affirmatively re-request it at the charging conference, in order to give the Court a fair opportunity
19 to correct any error. Otherwise, as stated, the request will be deemed abandoned or waived.

20 XI. TIME LIMITS

21 In certain cases, the Court will set fixed time limits at the final pretrial conference. All of 22 your examination time (whether direct, cross, re-direct or re-cross) for all witnesses and side bar
23 conference time must fit within your time limit and you may allocate it as you wish. Opening and 24 closing time limits shall be considered separately.

XII. NON-COMPLIANCE WITH PRETRIAL ORDER

The parties are on notice that failure to comply with the requirements set forth in this order may result in sanctions, whether in the form of monetary sanctions, involuntary dismissal, or other appropriate order. Late pretrial filings will be struck from the docket. While the parties may seek modest extensions of the deadlines set forth in this order, any request for an extension (whether by stipulation or administrative motion) must be filed at least seven days in advance of the deadline sought to be extended. Extensions that affect any dates on the Court's calendar are unlikely to be granted.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
